Invite a Friend or Relative

Most new people go to a church because someone invites them. Many in our own community do not know of the love and mercy of Jesus, who comes for sinners. If your friend or relative is not currently going to church – what do you have to lose? Be of good courage. Jesus is Lord.

Ponderings in the Pasture - Pastor Gutz

"Help my unbelief." Mark 9:24

(taken from To Live With Christ by Bo Giertz, 2008, CPH, p.214-215)

It can be difficult to believe.

If you think you can determine if Jesus is God's Son by using logic and known facts, then you will never know the truth. This mistake was made by many in the Jewish community. They believed they knew who the Messiah was. Some said no one would know where He came from; others said the Messiah would come from Bethlehem. They had heard Jesus was from Nazareth, so they rejected Him without knowing where He was born.

In truth, you can know Jesus only by following Him. You listen to Him to see who He is.

Even at that, it can be hard to believe because something inside us doesn't want to. A Christian has both a new man, who receives life from Christ, and an old Adam, who rejects Him. That is why, along with the father of the demon-possessed boy Jesus cured when He came down from the mount of Transfiguration, a Christian can say, "I believe! Help my unbelief!"

We always have doubt. The old Adam may acknowledge the existence of God. But then the old Adam would try to exploit God and His Church for personal reasons: The Church and its office can be a good source of income; religion can be an effective tool for teaching servants and dependents to behave and stay in their place; politicians know that one single church can keep a whole nation together (which has led to religious persecution and war).

The old Adam constantly looks for new objections to the existence of God. He doesn't want to be bothered with obeying God unless he is absolutely sure that it somehow benefits him. Even then, he tries to restrict his service to a minimum and wants to be a part of something only because it's good for his reputation or results in influential friendships, a promotion, or a raise.

We shouldn't be alarmed or frightened that this doubt within us doesn't want to learn to believe. That doesn't prevent us from really believing in Christ. In fact, it can even help us come to greater understanding and more confident belief.

Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief!

Church Finances - How did we do in 2025?

Church giving covered church expenses. Our expenses for the year were a bit over $241,000. Our giving was just over $248,500. Thank you for your generosity. The Word of the Lord continues to go forth into the lives of people through our church and preschool.

We support two specific mission projects: Lutheran Heritage Foundation - which translates materials (other than Bibles) into other languages for use around the world.

And Missionary Jordan Andreasen and family serving in Romania. Our goal is $7500 to each of these mission projects - $15,000 total. We only send on what we receive. You can designate this on your offering envelope. Some years we meet and exceed our goal. Some years we come up short. This year we were about $5000 short of our $15,000 goal. Hopefully we can meet our mission goal in 2026. We have been given all we need in Jesus and He blesses us that we might be a blessing to others.
